Dear Mr. Ashcroft

I do not beleive that our federal government should ever have brought an antitrust lawsuit against the Microsoft Company for controlling a large portion of the market because of their product superiority. It does not appear to me or anyone else I have talked to, to be a monopoly. Where wood this country be in the hi-tech world without Microsoft. It seems really unfair to me to punish them for being so successful in their bussiness. Because of the down turn in the bussiness cycle, I also beleive, the sooner we can put this nonsense behind us and give credit where credit is do the better we all will be.

Thank You

Sincerely
